

The following application lets the user track their expenses and income.

Registered user can login and enter their incomes and expenditures and corresponding graphs and charts will be visible in the wallet page. Users can view their income report in the "View Income" section of home page and expenditure report in "View Expenditure" section of home page. The application sends email to given email id when expenditure limit is exceeded.